

What do healthcare assistants do?

- Below are different healthcare activities.
- Colour in green the activities which healthcare assistants do.
- Colour in red the activities which healthcare assistants do not do.

Keeping areas where care is delivered clean and tidy	Help people to wash and dress
Record basic observations (with additional training)	Listening and talking to service users
Diagnose health conditions	Help people to eat, drink and move

What do nurses do? - Answer Sheet

Below are different healthcare activities

Colour in green the activities which nurses do.

Colour in red the activities which nurses do not do.

Keeping areas where care is delivered clean and tidy	Help people to wash and dress
Record basic observations (with additional training)	Listening and talking to service users
Diagnose health conditions (this is carried out by someone more qualified, such as a Doctor)	Help people to eat, drink and move