

Mature students

ROYAL HOLLOWAY
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

Royal Holloway has a long tradition of welcoming mature students, who may have spent a number of years outside of education. If you choose to develop your mind, life and career by going into, or back into, higher education we welcome your experiences and energy to our community.

You'll have access to a range of special support and assistance measures specifically aimed at mature student needs:

- Make the most of the careers service whilst you are here
- Balancing work and family commitments
- Childcare
- Finance support and advice
- Social life

“I received a lot of help when first arriving at Royal Holloway, transitioning to the British education system. The welcome week was particularly good as I got to meet the other mature students at events tailored to us so I didn't feel alone and made friends very quickly.”

Stephanie

“Services provided by the College cater to mature students just as well as they do for school leavers. The services are effectively tailored to your individual circumstances, for example taking prior work experience into consideration.”
